

Correcting Our Neighbor

“Faithful are the wounds of a friend” (Proverbs 27:6)

For whom the Lord loves He chastens...chastening seems painful in the present, but afterward it yields righteousness. Hebrews 12:6-11

First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. Matthew 7:5

If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile. Matthew 18:15-17

If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him.

As for those who persist in sin, rebuke them in the presence of all, so that the rest may stand in fear. 1 Timothy 5:20

Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.

If anyone disobeys what we say in this letter, take note of that person, and have nothing to do with him, that he may be ashamed. Do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother. 2 Thessalonians 3:14-15

If you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Matthew 5:23-24
